Re: Unintentional delay in filing a proper reply
Date: April 4, 2005

APPLICANT HEREBY PETITIONS FOR REVIVAL OF THIS APPLICATION:

The above-identified application became unintentionally abandoned for alleged failure to file a timely and proper reply to an action by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. This delay was unintentional, since the applicant had actually filed a response on Nov 17, 2004, before the deadline of Nov 18, 2004. However, applicant mistakenly believed that he could revise his application after that date, if the USPTO found formal problems in the filing, which it did. In reality he had until November 18, 2004 to make responsive changes and revisions to his application. Applicant is filing pro se and as a small business entity, and relied on informal advice from others without being aware of changes in procedures, such as the application of the rules of 37 CFR 1.121 (c) applicable to amendments of claims after July 30, 2003. Therefore, Applicant Eli Noam respectfully petitions for revival of this application, which has originally been filed Sept 2000.

Respectfully Submitted,

Eli Noam
